MOTION FOR RELIEF FROM STAY

Plaintiff, William Foster, a creditor, by the undersigned counsel, states:

1. This Court has jurisdiction under 11 U.S.C. § 727 (a) (4) and 28 U.S.C. § 1334.

2. This motion in this adversary proceeding is based on 11 U.S.C. §362(d).

The Plaintiff/ Creditor, William Foster is a creditor of the debtor/ defendant, Circuit City Stores, Inc. and/or Circuit City Purchasing Company, LLC, in the above-entitled bankruptcy case.

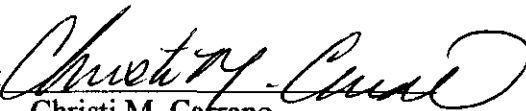

3. Prior to the commencement of the above-entitled bankruptcy case, the plaintiff had on, December 31, 2007, commenced a lawsuit entitled William Foster v. Circuit City Purchasing Company, LLC, et al., bearing Docket Number NNI CV 08 5002945, Judicial District of New Haven at Meriden, against the defendant for personal injuries the plaintiff suffered on June 19, 2006 at the Circuit City store located at 19 Universal Drive, North Haven, Connecticut. Attached hereto as Exhibit A.

4. The plaintiff claims injuries valued in excess of $15,000.00. On November 10, 2008, the debtor, filed a bankruptcy petition in this Court.

5. The debtor was covered by a policy of insurance through Old Republic Insurance Company with policy limits in the amount of $1,500,000.00, for the above date of loss.

WHEREFORE, the plaintiff respectfully requests that this Court grant him relief from the automatic stay pursuant to 11 U.S.C. 362 in order to allow him to pursue his lawsuit against the defendant.

COMPLAINT

FIRST COUNT (As to the Defendant, Circuit City Purchasing Company, LLC)

1. On or about June 19, 2006, and for some time prior thereto, there existed on 19 Universal Drive, North Haven, Connecticut, a store known as Circuit City.
2. At all relevant times, the defendant, Circuit City Purchasing Company, LLC, was the owner of the store commonly known as Circuit City.
3. At all relevant times, the defendant, Circuit City Purchasing Company, LLC, operated the business Circuit City.
4. At said time, the defendant, Circuit City Purchasing Company, LLC, was a limited liability company doing business in the State of Connecticut.
5. At all times mentioned herein, the defendant, Circuit City Purchasing Company, LLC, d/b/a Circuit City, was a business that invited the public to enter thereon.
6. At all times mentioned herein, the premises were under the defendant, Circuit City Purchasing Company, LLC's, exclusive possession and control.

7. On or about June 19, 2006, at approximately 1:39 p.m., the plaintiff, William Foster, was a business invitee of Circuit City Purchasing Company, LLC, d/b/a Circuit City.

8. On said date and time, as the plaintiff was exiting the store, the automatic door failed to fully open and the plaintiff, William Foster, was caused to strike his head on said door, causing him injuries.

9. Said occurrence was due to the negligence and/or carelessness of the defendant, Circuit City Purchasing Company, LLC, d/b/a Circuit City, in any one or more of the following ways:

- a) IN THAT the defendant, Circuit City Purchasing Company, LLC, d/b/a Circuit City, caused, allowed and/or permitted said door to be and remain in a hazardous and dangerous condition in that it did not open and close properly;
- b) IN THAT the defendant, Circuit City Purchasing Company, LLC, d/b/a Circuit City, failed to inspect said door with sufficient frequency to discover and/or rectify said hazardous and dangerous condition;
- c) IN THAT the defendant, Circuit City Purchasing Company, LLC, d/b/a Circuit City, knew, or in the exercise of reasonable care and inspection, should have known of said hazardous and dangerous condition, but failed to take necessary measures to remedy said condition;
- d) IN THAT the defendant, Circuit City Purchasing Company, LLC, d/b/a Circuit City, knew of said hazardous and dangerous condition, and despite their knowledge, failed to take necessary measures to remedy said condition;
- e) IN THAT the defendant, Circuit City Purchasing Company, LLC, d/b/a Circuit City, failed to warn the plaintiff of the dangerous condition, then and there existing, by placing warning signs and or other devices on or near the door;

f) IN THAT the defendant, Circuit City Purchasing Company, LLC, d/b/a Circuit City, created the dangerous and defective condition.

10. As a result of the negligence of the defendant and of said occurrence, the plaintiff sustained the following injuries, some of which may be permanent:

- a) Laceration to his head above his right eyebrow;
- b) He was forced to get stitches;
- c) He was forced to get a tetanus shot.

11. As a further result of said injuries, the plaintiff's ability to participate in his normal activities and engagements was impaired and he has been unable to fully enjoy life's daily, social, and recreational activities.

12. As a further result, the plaintiff, William Foster, was obliged to incur medical expenses for medical care and attention and emergency room treatment, and he may or will in the future, be obliged to incur additional expenses of a similar nature.

13. As a further result, the plaintiff, William Foster, was caused to miss time from work, resulting in claim for lost wages.
